

Terex Part

Terex Parts - Terex Forklifts takes great pride in manufacturing quality equipment that helps enhance their customers' efficiency while standing by their mission to provide a cost effective yet consistent product line. Through numerous divestures and acquisitions intended to expand the product offering, Terex has a short time ago expanded dramatically. They have enhanced their geographic coverage to enable them to supply quality standards and value for their broad customer base.

Terex has remained a competitive player in the material handling and industrialized equipment sector. They are working towards forming a franchise under the name brand Terex by incorporating all of their previous brand names for many of the goods used in conjunction business the brand Terex. Presently, Terex goods are principally marketed under the Terex name. Some of the following historic name brands and transitional names include: ATC, Amida, American Truck Company, American, Advance, Bartell, Benford, Bendini, Bid-Well, CMI, CMI-Cifali, CMI Johnson-Ross, Cedarapids, Canica, Comedil, Demag, ELJay, Franna, Fermac, Finlay, Fuchs, Genie, Hi-Ranger, Jaques, Load King, Morrison, O&K, Peiner, PPM, Powerscreen, Pegson, Reedrill, Schaeff, Simplicity, Standard Havens, Tatra, TerexLift, Telelect and Unit Rig.

Terex has had a steady evolution cycle. In 1995 Terex acquired PPM Cranes, in 1996, then Terex divested Clark Materials Handling. In 1997 Terex acquires Telelect and Simon-RO. BPI Handlers in Baraga, Michigan is also acquired this same year.

Acquiring O&K Mining and Payhauler in 1998, allowed Terex to cultivate their mining business. The same year their crane offering expanded their operations greatly with the acquisitions of Gru Comedil, TerexLift, American Crane and Peiner. A Light Building business soon followed in 1999 when Terex acquired Amida, Bartell and Benford. They quickly became a leader within the crushing and screening industry by acquiring Cedarapids, Powerscreen, BL Pegson, Re-Tech, and Finlay. Franna, Kooi and Princeton crane companies were also added to Terex in 1999.

By the year 2000, Terex extended into the Compact Equipment market, buying Fermac who is a maker specializing in tractor loader backhoes. Their Light Construction operations continued to expand operations with the acquisition of Coleman Engineering. This same year, Terex divested Moffett, Kooi and Princeton.

In 2001, Terex expanded their Roadbuilding division operations with the acquisitions of CMI, Bid-Well, Load King, Atlas and Jaques.

A few of the purchases that took place in 2002 made it easier for Terex to grow into a leader in their respective categories. Advance Mixer helped drive Terex into the concrete mixing industry, while Demag helped Terex Cranes become a leader in the crane industry. Acquiring German suppliers Fuchs and Schaeff positioned Terex in a top position in the Compact Equipment class. Genie became a leading manufacturer of Aerial Work Platforms. This busy year was completed business with the acquisitions of EPAC and Pacific Utility, which provided company-owned circulation for Terex Utilities.

A company called Tatra was acquired in 2003. This company created heavy duty vehicles for military and off-road industrial applications. Buying Combatel and Commercial Body the same year enabled Terex to continue to expand its company-owned Terex Utilities supply.

In 2004, Terex acquired Reedrill, a maker of surface drilling technologies for application within the construction, utility and mining markets. Noble CE, which was referred to as Terex Mexico was also acquired this year. They manufacture high capacity surface mining trucks and also fabricate many parts for other Terex businesses.
